

GLOBAL SPACES

PHASE-II, KARNAL

Because modern living is an art that's best perfected amongst the greens!

In 2006, we at Global Realty redefined modern living with the launch of Global Spaces, Karnal, an integrated and well designed township spread across 55 acres of prime land. A future proof township, this project marries modern amenities to lush green landscapes. The prime location and carefully laid out plans make us the first choice amongst discerning people who chose life in a serene and safe environment which is rooted well within city limits.

At Global Realty we believe there should be no full stops to a good story. Reason why, we now open a new chapter in city dwelling with the launch of Global Space, Phase II. Welcome to your new address.

PHASE-II, KARNAL

Feeling at home has a new meaning...

Karnal, with its strategic location – being the center point between Delhi and Chandigarh has been an ideal settlement choice for ages. However, the choice has now become a strong argument for action with the launch of Global Spaces, Phase II; with wide open spaces, abundant lush greens, plots that face gardens for aesthetics and wide open roads for practicality, playing areas, carefully manicured landscapes and more.

The way we see it, there are houses and then there are homes.

Always expect more. Much more!

We appreciate that one looks forward to a little extra from all our projects. Which is why, at Global Spaces, Phase II, one has the convenience of a next door commercial complex that's stocked to address everyone's shopping needs. There's also a club house that offers recreation and relaxation in the form of swimming pool, modern gym, restaurant, billiards, card room and more. At the same time we have created space for medical facilities and a nursery school to ensure that little ones are always close by.

At Global Spaces, anything less was never an option.

Take a deep breath

The polluted air of the cities is now a thing of the past. The grey of concrete has been replaced by the green of nature at Global Spaces, Phase II. One now has the opportunity to take a walk, arm-in-arm with nature, in our well manicured and landscaped lawns. Now one can fill the lungs with oxygen and the heart with joy that comes from leading a life the way it was meant to be.

Beauty lies in the eyes of every beholder...

One survey of our three parks is enough to take the breath away for a second or two.

Tall trees along the periphery, wide roads for a leisurely walk and lush green grass make for a feeling of awe.

Then it gets better still. After all how many other places offer putting greens, or walk through fountains, or an amphitheatre, or stone cubes for people to sit and bond? It's a great place for the children too.

Global Spaces, Phase II parks have built in cycle tracks, multi-system play arenas with built in slides and merry go rounds; along with a giant, permanent snakes & ladders board built into the ground!

And to ensure your precious little one is never too far away, we have shaded canopies so you can keep a keen eye in comfort. All this a step away from home.

*Tomorrow is certain and global in perspective.
At Global Realty we are focused on the future by being relevant Today.*

Global Realty

We are involved on every plane of the Real Estate Spectrum. Hundreds of man-hours of design and construction expertise, millions of square feet of completed projects, thousands of acres of land ready for development in our land bank, signed up projects abroad and a management team that can give face and character to any demand in the realty universe.

From Global Realty, the parent company we have ventured way beyond: into Global Spaces, our new millennial integrated townships; SEZs like Vrindhavan Tech Village; to tattoo a drum-roll of even more branded verticals across the country. There's Le' Kabir, our very own 5 Star luxury hotel brand; Global School of Management Science a state of art, high tech institute for higher education; The Nobles League, our foray into education and Global Foyer, a premium mall that's Space Age in design and effortlessly blends retail with office space.

We are a company of the now with clear understanding of the future. That's why our world extends across latitude and longitude exemplified in our name – Global Realty.
